Springline Yacht Sales expands to Quebec and Lake Champlain

Julie Garneau, with her contagious smile and buoyant personality, has been serving the yachting community as a Yacht Broker since 2010. She and the entire Springline team are excited to bring Elan, Island Packet and Blue Jacket to the Quebec and Lake Champlain region. Working with clients in Quebec Canada, Lake Champlain and beyond, Julie has established herself as the “go to” person in that area.

“We are thrilled to be expanding and bringing our brands and Julie’s expertise to our Canadian clients. We look forward to seeing Julie out on Lake Champlain with happy clients at the helm of an Elan, Blue Jacket or Island Packet,” said Rick Dieterich, owner and president of Springline.

Julie’s experience ranges from lake sailor to offshore sailor to Mega Yacht crew member, her rich boating experience affords great understanding of a clients’ needs and enables her to lead them through the entire process of securing their dream boat.

“The best part of selling a boat is seeing people realize their dream and getting to be part of that adventure.” Julie knows her role is not just selling a boat; it is sharing a lifestyle. Julie is excited to be part of the Springline Yacht Sales team and bring the SLYS new boat brands and brokerage services to clients ‘up north.’
