Noelle's lending career began in 1992 with First Union Bank in Tampa, Florida. She successfully completed the FUNB training process for commercial and consumer sales and underwriting. Her role at First Union evolved over ten years in private banking and she became a leader in lending on residential properties, yachts, jets and recreational vehicles.

In 2000, she joined MarineMax and over her 13 year career her primary role was Vice President of their Private Client Group. With her passion of establishing solid client relationships and providing creative financial solutions Noelle was responsible for lending to their large yacht clients.

Understanding luxury financing is a specialty for Noelle Norvell, President of Luxury Financial Group. Her years of experience in banking regulations and loan underwriting practices has made her a recognized leader in the yacht lending and private client services. Noelle provides exceptional financial advice and professional counsel along with confidential, personalized service to each of her clients.
